

Internal Brace Fixation

The internal brace® is novel orthopedic technology that improves the ability to restore and protect the natural length of your ligament. This technology allows us to perform more novel and anatomic procedures that maintain your mobility without sacrificing motion. Combining this technology with our surgical techniques has allowed us accelerate rehabilitation of patients getting them back to their favorite sports sooner and more reliably. For further information on the Internal Brace.